A MESSAGE FROM THE OKLAHOMA TAX COMMISSION

Dear Vendor,

This packet contains the rules concerning tax exempt sales and examples of the exemption documents that are either issued or approved by the Oklahoma Tax Commission.

Personal Use of Sales Tax Exemption Permit Prohibited

Section 1356.2 of the Oklahoma Statutes [HB 2510 (2012)] prohibits a person from claiming a sales tax exemption granted an organization pursuant to Section 1356 or 1357 of Title 68 in order to make a purchase exempt from sales tax for his/her personal use and further provides that any person who knowingly makes a purchase in violation thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to a fine equal to double the amount of sales tax involved and/or incarceration for not more than 60 days. Violators shall also be subject to an administrative fine of not more than $500 which shall be deposited to the General Revenue Fund.

Vendors may be relieved of sales tax liability on exempt sales if, at or before the time of sale, they obtain and retain properly executed documents as evidence of the sales tax exemption.

Vendors should obtain the necessary document for each exempt sale and retain the document with the sales invoice for a period of 3 years from the date of invoice or date of sales tax remittance, whichever is later. If you are making a series of exempt sales to the same person, you may obtain the documentation and keep it on file. During daily business operations, you may be presented with a variety of documents from exempt purchasers. If you have any questions concerning the validity of a document or a claimed exemption, or need to verify sales tax and agricultural exemption permits - contact 405.521.3160.

"A vendor who holds a current sales tax permit may obtain a file of all sales tax permit holders by filing Form 13-98 and remitting a fee of $150.00 annually. This file is updated monthly. This form may be obtained from our website at tax.ok.gov.

Sincerely,
Oklahoma Tax Commission

This Vendor Cooperates With the Oklahoma Tax Commission to Verify Purchaser Liability

The Oklahoma Sales Tax Code requires every vendor in this state to collect the appropriate amount of state and local sales taxes as imposed by law.

Vendors are held liable for the collection and remittance of these taxes unless the purchaser timely provides the vendor with documentation that the purchaser is exempt from the payment of sales taxes.

Oklahoma law also provides that, if the Oklahoma Tax Commission finds that a purchaser improperly presents exemption documents or uses the property for a non-exempt purpose, the purchaser shall be liable for the tax and can be assessed a $500 fine. If this occurs, the Oklahoma Tax Commission may pursue collection from the purchaser and the vendor shall not be held liable for the tax.

EXCERPTS FROM OKLAHOMA TAX COMMISSION PERMANENT RULES

Rule 710:65-3-33.

Records required to support deductions from gross receipts for purposes of calculating sales tax:

(a) Supporting records required. Where the nature of a business is such that charge and time sales are made, or where the nature of the business is such that a portion of its sales are for resale, or are within the protection of the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States, or consist of services, or are made to exempt churches, to a government body, or are exempt from the tax on some other ground, then such records as will clearly indicate the information required in filing returns must be kept.

(b) Complete and detailed records required. To support deductions made on the tax return, such as sales for resale, sales within the protection of the Commerce Clause of the Constitution of the United States, sales made to churches, or sales made to any government body, the vendor's records for each transaction for which is claimed shall be in detail sufficient to show:

- (1) The name and address of the customer,
- (2) The character of the transaction,
- (3) The date,
- (4) The amount of gross receipts or gross proceeds, and
- (5) Such other information as may be necessary to establish the nontaxable character of such transaction under the Sales Tax Code.

(c) Purchaser resale number requirement. Anyone claiming a sale for resale exemption shall also keep a record of the purchaser's resale number issued by the Commission. The failure to obtain and keep a record of the purchaser's resale number shall create a presumption that the sale was not a sale for resale. The vendor may, however, present other documentary evidence from its books and records to overcome this presumption. [See: 68 O.S. §1365(C)] [Source: Amended at 11 Ok Reg 3521, effective 6/26/94]

Rule 710:65-7-6.

Vendors' or certified service providers' relief from liability and duty to collect sales tax.

(a) Presumption of taxability. All sales are presumed to be subject to sales tax unless specifically exempted by the Sales Tax Code. Vendors are liable for the sales tax collected as well as for tax that should have been collected.

(b) When vendor or certified service provider may be relieved of liability. A vendor or certified service provider shall be relieved of any liability for the tax and of the duty to collect imposed by Section 1361 of Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes if the vendor, in good faith, timely accepts from a consumer, properly completed documentation certified by the Oklahoma Tax Commission that such consumer is exempt from the taxes levied by the Oklahoma Sales Tax Code.

(c) General requirements. Three requirements must be met before the vendor or certified service provider is relieved of liability.

- (1) Vendor or certified service provider good faith. Good faith requires that the vendor strictly comply with statutory requirements.
- (2) Timely acceptance from a consumer. Timely acceptance from a consumer requires that documentation be in the possession of the vendor within ninety (90) days subsequent to the date of sale. In the case of continued sales to the same purchaser, the vendor must have, on file, a sales tax permit, card, or exemption letter for each renewal interval. If no renewal interval is provided by statute, the renewal period will be deemed three (3) years, except in the case of entities with specific statutory exemptions who have established eligibility as set out in 710:65-7-15 and 710:65-7-17 through 710:65-7-19.
- (3) Properly completed documentation certified by the Oklahoma Tax Commission. Examples of properly completed documentation certified by the Oklahoma Tax Commission are described in 710:65-7-8 through 710:65-7-15 and 710:65-7-17 through 710:65-7-19.

(d) When vendor or certified service provider may not be relieved of liability. Relief from liability for the tax and of the duty to collect imposed by Section 1361 of Title 68 shall not apply to:

- (1) a seller or certified service provider who fraudulently fails to collect tax;
- (2) a seller who solicits purchasers to participate in the unlawful claim of an exemption; or
- (3) a seller who accepts an exemption certificate when the purchaser claims an entity-based exemption when:
 - (A) the subject of the transaction sought to be covered by the exemption certificate is actually received by the purchaser at a location operated by the seller; and
 - (B) the Tax Commission provides an exemption certificate that clearly and affirmatively indicates that the claimed exemption is not available in this state.

(e) Specific applications. The items of information described in 710:65-7-8 through 710:65-7-15 and 710:65-7-17 through 710:65-7-19 shall constitute minimum requirements to establish “properly completed documentation certified by the Tax Commission” for each respective category of purchasers.

Rule 710:65-7-8.

Sales for resale. In the case of sales for resale, items set out in this section are required to establish properly completed documentation:

- (1) A copy of the purchaser’s sales tax permit, or if unavailable, the purchaser’s name, address, sales tax permit number, and its date of expiration. If a copy of the sales tax permit is unavailable, and if the information provided has not been previously verified, it must be verified by either calling the Taxpayer Assistance Division or by reference to the sales tax permit list obtained pursuant to OAC 710:65-9-6;
- (2) A statement that the articles purchased are purchased for resale;
- (3) The signature of the purchaser or a person authorized to legally bind the purchaser;
- (4) Certification on the face of the invoice, bill or sales slip or by a separate document, that says the purchaser is engaged in reselling the articles purchased; and,
- (5) In cases where purchases are made on regular basis, and the certification indicates that all purchases are for resale, then subsequent purchases may be made without further certification until the expiration date of the permit.

Rule 710:65-7-9.

Sales to a manufacturer. In the case of sales to purchasers claiming exemption for manufacturing, the vendor must obtain a copy of the purchaser’s manufacturer’s exemption permit issued pursuant to 68 O.S. § 1359.2 (hereafter referred to as “Sales/Manufacturers Permit”), or if unavailable, the name, address, and Sales/Manufacturers Permit number of the purchaser or, a statement that contains the information that would appear on the Sales/Manufacturers Permit. If a copy of the Sales/Manufacturers Permit is unavailable and if the information provided has not been previously verified, it must be verified by either calling the Taxpayer Assistance Division or by reference to the sales tax permit list obtained pursuant to OAC 710:65-9-6.

Rule 710:65-7-10.

Sales made pursuant to a direct payment permit. In the case of sales made to purchasers claiming deferral pursuant to a direct payment permit, the vendor must obtain the items of information described in this section:

- (1) A copy of the purchaser’s Direct Payment Permit (DPP), or if unavailable, the purchaser’s name, address, DPP number, and its date of expiration. If a copy of the Direct Payment Permit is unavailable and if the information provided has not been previously verified, it must be verified by either calling the Taxpayer Assistance Division or by reference to the sales tax permit list obtained pursuant to OAC 710:65-9-6;
- (2) A statement that the permit-holder claims deferral of the payment of any applicable state and local sales or use taxes upon its purchases of taxable tangible personal property or services;
- (3) A statement that the articles purchased are for use in the purchaser’s Oklahoma enterprises, and not for resale; and,
- (4) The signature of the purchaser or a person authorized to legally bind the purchaser, and date signed.

In the case of a purchaser claiming exemption from sales tax pursuant to the exemption allowed by 68 O.S. §1357(34), the vendor must obtain either a copy of the exemption card issued the purchaser by the Tax Commission or the purchaser's name, address, and exemption number.

In addition the statutes cite the following:

Title 68, Section 1361.1. Consumer exempt from tax - Liability of vendor.

- (1) If a vendor, in good faith, timely accepts from a consumer properly completed documentation certified by the Oklahoma Tax Commission that such consumer is exempt from the taxes levied by the Oklahoma Sales Tax Code, the vendor shall be relieved of any liability for any sales tax or the duty to collect any sales tax imposed by the provisions of Section 1361 of this title upon such vendor with respect to such sale.
- (2) A vendor who has actual knowledge that a consumer is entitled to an exemption under paragraph 34 of Section 1357 of this title and who willfully or intentionally refuses to honor the exemption shall be punished by an administrative fine of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per offense.

Title 68, Section 1361.2. Disabled veterans' exemption - Proof of eligibility required.

In order to claim the exemption authorized by paragraph 34 of Section 1357 of Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes, the person to whom the sale is made shall be required to furnish the vendor proof of eligibility for the exemption as issued by the Oklahoma Tax Commission. All vendors shall honor the proof of eligibility for sales tax exemption and sales for the benefit of the disabled veteran to a person providing such proof shall be exempt from the tax levied pursuant to the Oklahoma Sales Tax Code.

Rule 710:65-7-11.

INSTRUCTIONS

In order to comply with state and local sales tax law requirements, the Seller must have in its files a properly completed exemption certificate from all of its customers (Buyers) who claim a sales/use tax exemption. If the Seller does not have this certificate, it is obliged to collect the tax for the state in which the property or service is delivered.

Generally, a Buyer must be registered as a retailer for sales/use tax in states where the Buyer has sales/use tax nexus. The sales/use tax registration number(s) should be entered on this certificate. A Buyer has sales/use tax nexus in a state if the Buyer has physical presence in that state or has made sufficient sales to customers in that state to have sales/use tax economic nexus. The threshold of sales activity needed to establish sales/use tax economic nexus may differ by state. If the Buyer is entitled to claim a resale sales tax exemption or exclusion, the Buyer should complete the certificate and send it to the Seller at the time of purchase or as soon thereafter as possible. If the Buyer purchases tax free for a reason other than resale, ingredient or component exemption, the Buyer cannot use this form and must provide to the Seller the proper state exemption certificate for that specific exemption.

Caution:

Misuse of this certificate by Buyer, Seller, lessor, lessee, or the representative thereof may be punishable by fine, imprisonment or loss of right to issue or accept a certificate in some states or cities.

Notes:

1. Alabama: Each retailer shall be responsible for determining the validity of a purchaser's claim for exemption.
2. Arizona: This certificate may be used only when making purchases of tangible personal property for resale in the ordinary course of business, and not for any other statutory deduction or exemption. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it contains the purchaser's name, address, signature, and Arizona transaction privilege tax (or other state sales tax) license number, as required by Arizona Revised Statutes § 42-5022, Burden of proving sales not at retail.
3. California:
 - a) This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Title 18, California Code of Regulations, Section 1668 (Sales and Use Tax Regulation 1668, Resale Certificate).
 - b) By use of this certificate, the purchaser certifies that the property is purchased for resale in the regular course of business in the form of tangible personal property, which includes property incorporated as an ingredient or component of an item manufactured for resale in the regular course of business.
 - c) When the applicable tax would be sales tax, it is the Seller who owes that tax unless the Seller takes a timely and valid resale certificate in good faith.
 - d) A valid resale certificate is effective until the issuer revokes the certificate.
4. Colorado, Hawaii, Illinois, and New Mexico: these states do not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exemption for the purchase of a taxable service for resale.
5. Colorado: Sellers should review 1 Code Colo. Regs. 201-1, Rule 39-26-105-3 (Documenting Exempt Sales) prior to accepting this form. The Colorado Department of Revenue collects and administers the state sales and use taxes and the sales and use taxes of certain cities, counties, and special districts (see department publication DR 1002). Use of this form (along with the other documentation required by department rule) is acceptable for taxes administered by the Colorado Department of Revenue. This form may not be accepted by self-collecting Colorado home-rule cities. Sellers are advised to contact those cities directly for further instruction.
6. Connecticut: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to Conn. Gen. State §§12-410(5) and 12-411(14) and regulations and administrative pronouncements pertaining to resale certificates. The good faith of the seller will be questioned if it has knowledge of facts which give rise to a reasonable inference that the purchaser does not intend to resell the property, as, for example, knowledge that the purchaser of particular merchandise (or service) is not engaged in the business of selling that kind of merchandise (or service).
7. Florida: Allows the Multistate Tax Commission's Uniform Sales and Use Tax Resale Certificate – Multijurisdiction for tax-exempt purchases for resale; however, the selling dealer must also obtain a resale authorization number from the Florida Department of Revenue at floridarevenue.com/taxes/certificates, or by calling 877-357-3725, and entering the purchaser's Florida Annual Resale Certificate number.

8. Georgia: a) The purchaser's state-of-registration number will be accepted in lieu of Georgia's registration number when the purchaser is located outside Georgia, does not have nexus with Georgia, and the tangible personal property is delivered by drop shipment to the purchaser's customer located in Georgia.
- b) The certificate relieves the seller from the burden of proof on sales for resale if the seller acquires from the purchaser a properly completed certificate, taken in good faith, from a purchaser who:
- (i) Is engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property;
 - (ii) Has a valid sales tax registration number at the time of purchase and has listed his or her sales tax number on the certificate; and
 - (iii) At the time of purchasing the tangible personal property, the seller has no reason to believe that the purchaser does not intend to resell it in his or her regular course of business.
9. Hawaii: Allows this certificate to be used by the seller to claim a lower general excise tax rate or no general excise tax, rather than the buyer claiming an exemption. The no tax situation occurs when the purchaser of imported goods certifies to the seller, who originally imported the goods into Hawaii, that the purchaser will resell the imported goods at wholesale. If the lower rate or no-tax does not in fact apply to the sale, the purchaser is liable to pay the seller the additional tax imposed. See Hawaii Dept. of Taxation Tax Information Release No. 93-5, November 10, 1993, and Tax Information Release No. 98-8, October 30, 1998.
10. Idaho: This certificate may be used only when making purchases of tangible personal property for resale in the ordinary course of business, and not for any other statutory deduction or exemption. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it complies with Rule 128 of the Idaho Administrative Rules for Sales Tax (IDAPA 35.01.02.128).
11. Illinois: Use of this certificate in Illinois is subject to the provisions of 86 Ill. Adm. Code Ch.I, Sec. 130.1405 (Seller's Responsibility to Obtain Certificates of Resale and Requirements for Certificates of Resale). Illinois does not have an exemption for sales of property for subsequent lease or rental, except as follows: (i) a motor vehicle that is used for automobile renting subject to the Automobile Renting Occupation and Use tax Act (35 ILCS 120/2-5(7)) and (ii) merchandise that the purchaser certifies is purchased to be rented subject to the Rental Purchase Agreement Occupation and Use Tax Act (35 ILCS 120/2-5(43)). Buyers purchasing items for lease or rental that meet either of these two exceptions should not use this Uniform Sales and Use Tax Resale Certificate, but instead must provide to Sellers proof of registration for the Automobile Renting Occupation and Use Tax or the Rental Purchase Agreement Occupation and Use Tax, as appropriate, and, in the case of the Rental Purchase Agreement Occupation and Use Tax, should use Form ST-261 (Exemption Certificate for Property Subject to Rental Purchase Agreement Tax). The use of this certificate for claiming resale purchases of services does not have any application in Illinois.

The registration number to be supplied next to Illinois on page 1 of this certificate must be the Illinois registration or resale number; no other state's registration number is acceptable.

"Good faith" is not the standard of care to be exercised by a retailer in Illinois. A retailer in Illinois is not required to determine whether the purchaser actually intends to resell the item. Instead, a retailer must confirm that the purchaser has a valid registration or resale number at the time of purchase. If a purchaser fails to provide a certificate of resale at the time of sale in Illinois, the seller must charge the purchaser tax.

While there is no statutory requirement that blanket certificates of resale be renewed at certain intervals, blanket certificates should be updated periodically, and no less frequently than every three years.

12. Kansas: Purchaser must enter a valid Kansas Registration Number issued by the Kansas Department of Revenue. Exemption certificates must be obtained from the purchaser at the time of the sale, but no later than 90 days subsequent to the date of sale. This resale certificate may only be used as a resale exemption certificate or ingredient or component part exemption certificate. This resale certificate may not be used by contractors to purchase materials without sales tax. This resale certificate may not be used by Manufacturing Companies to purchase machinery and equipment without sales tax. See Kansas Certificate ST-201. This resale certificate need not be renewed or updated when there is a recurring business relationship between the buyer and seller. A recurring business relationship exists when a period of no more than 12 months elapses between sales transactions. This resale certificate cannot be used by contractors to purchase labor services from other contractors without tax.
13. Kentucky: a) Kentucky does not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exclusion for the purchase of admissions.

- b) This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Kentucky Revised Statute 139.270.
- c) The use of this certificate by the purchaser constitutes the issuance of a blanket certificate in accordance with Kentucky Administrative Regulation 103 KAR 31:111.

14. Maine: This state does not have an exemption for sales of property for subsequent lease or rental. This certificate is not valid for use by manufacturers purchasing tangible personal property that becomes an ingredient or component part of a product manufactured by the manufacturer. Please use Maine’s Industrial Users Exemption Certificate (ST-A-117).

15. Maryland: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Md Tax – Gen §11-408(b). All claims for the resale exclusion, even those made with this certificate, must include the Buyer’s Maryland sales and use tax registration number. Certificates without a Maryland sales and use tax registration number will not be honored by the State. However, in lieu of a sale and use tax registration number, sellers may accept resale certificates that bear the exemption number issued to a religious organization. Exemption certifications issued to religious organizations consist of 8 digits, the first two of which are always “29”. Maryland sales and use tax registration numbers, exemptions, and direct pay numbers may be verified on the website of the Comptroller of the Treasury at www.marylandtaxes.gov.

16. Michigan: Blanket certificates are effective for a period of four years unless a lesser period is mutually agreed to and stated on this certificate. A seller who receives and maintains a record of a properly completed certificate is not generally liable for sales or use tax on the transaction, even if a purchaser improperly claims an exemption. There are certain limited situations in which a seller can be liable for the tax, such as those involving fraud on the part of the seller. For more information, see revenue Administrative Bulletin (RAB) 2016-14.

17. Minnesota: Purchaser’s Minnesota tax identification number should be inserted into the row labeled “MN” in the state chart on page 1. If purchaser does not have a Minnesota tax identification number, the following are acceptable:

- Purchaser’s tax identification number issued by a state other than Minnesota and the name of the state;
- Purchaser’s federal Employer identification Number;
- The number of Purchaser’s valid state-issued driver’s license, or a valid state-issued identification number, along with the state of issue.

Purchaser must identify purchaser’s type of business using Minnesota’s business-type coding system. Check the correct box near the top of page 1. If you check the box labeled “Other,” provide the appropriate Minnesota business code in the space following the “Other” check box. You can find a list of Minnesota business codes on the Minnesota exemption certificate (Form ST3).

Purchaser must update the certificate data, as necessary, if this certificate is to be used as a blanket exemption certificate for continuing future purchases.

Note that Minnesota allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only. It does not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption. To claim an exemption other than resale, use the Minnesota exemption certificate (Form ST3) or the Streamlined Sales Tax Governing Board exemption certificate (Form F0003).

- 18. Missouri:
 - a) Purchasers who improperly purchase property or services sales-tax free using this certificate may be required to pay the tax, interest, additions to tax, or penalty.
 - b) Even if property is delivered outside Missouri, facts and circumstances may subject it to Missouri tax, contrary to the second sentence of the first paragraph of the above instructions.

- 19. Nevada:
 - a) This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of NRS 372.165, NRS 372.170, NRS 372.175 and NRS 372.180 regarding sales tax, and NRS 372.235, NRS 372.240 and NRS 372.245 regarding use tax.
 - b) By use of this certificate, the purchaser certifies that the property is purchased for resale in the regular course of business in the form of tangible personal property, which includes property incorporated as an ingredient or component of an item manufactured for resale in the regular course of business.
 - c) When the applicable tax would be sales tax, it is the Seller who owes that tax unless the Seller takes a timely and valid resale certificate.
 - d) A valid resale certificate is typically effective until the issuer revokes the certificate, but periodic renewal of the certificate is recommended.
 - e) Contractors are generally considered consumers of tangible personal property pursuant to NAC 372.200 and are unable and should not use this certificate, and Sellers should not accept it from a contractor.

20. New Mexico: For transactions occurring on or after July 1, 1998, New Mexico will accept this certificate in lieu of a New Mexico nontaxable transaction certificate and as evidence of the deductibility of a sale of tangible personal property provided:
- a) this certificate was not issued by the State of New Mexico;
 - b) the buyer is not required to be registered in New Mexico; and
 - c) the buyer is purchasing tangible personal property for resale or incorporation as an ingredient or component of a manufactured product.
21. North Carolina: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate if signed by a person such as a contractor who intends to use the property. Its use is subject to G.S. 105-164.28 and any administrative rules or directives pertaining to resale certificates.
22. Ohio:
- a) The buyer must specify which one of the reasons for exemption on the certificate applies. This may be done by circling or underlining the appropriate reason or writing it on the form above the state registration section. Failure to specify the exemption reason will, on audit, result in disallowance of the certificate.
 - b) If no certificate is provided or obtained from the buyer at the time of the sale or within ninety days after the date on which such sale is consummated, it shall be presumed that the tax applies.
23. Oklahoma: Oklahoma would allow this certificate in lieu of a copy of the purchaser's sales tax permit as one of the elements of "properly completed documents" which is one of the three requirements which must be met prior to the vendor being relieved of liability. The other two requirements are that the vendor must have the certificate in his possession within ninety (90) days subsequent to the date of sale and must accept the documentation in good faith. The specific documentation required under OAC 710:65-7-6 is: Written certification containing the purchaser's name, address, type of business, sales tax permit number, and the signature of the purchaser. OAC 710:65-7-8.
- Absent strict compliance with these requirements, Oklahoma holds a seller liable for sales tax due on sales where the claimed exemption is found to be invalid, for whatever reason, unless the Tax Commission determines that purchaser should be pursued for collection of the tax resulting from improper presentation of a certificate.
24. Pennsylvania: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. It is valid as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of 61 PA Code §32.3. The buyer should enter their eight-digit Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax license number. If the buyer does not have a Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax license number, they must provide an explanation as to why they are not licensed.
25. Rhode Island: Rhode Island allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only when the item will be resold in the same form. It does not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.
26. South Dakota: Services which are purchased by a service provider and delivered to a current customer in conjunction with the services contracted to be provided to the customer are claimed to be for resale. Receipts from the sale of a service for resale by the purchaser are not subject to sales tax if the purchaser furnishes a resale certificate which the seller accepts in good faith. In order for the transaction to be a sale for resale, the following conditions must be present:
- (a) The service is purchased for or on behalf of a current customer;
 - (b) The purchaser of the service does not use the service in any manner; and
 - (c) The service is delivered or resold to the customer without any alteration or change.
27. Tennessee: Third-Party drop shipment – A seller registered in Tennessee, who sells to an unregistered out-of-state retailer but delivers the product in Tennessee to the retailer's customer who is a consumer, must charge the sales tax on the sale to the out-of-state retailer unless the out-of-state retailer provides the seller with a resale exemption certificate that includes a Tennessee resale number.
- Any tangible personal property or other taxable item or service purchased without the payment of tax upon this resale certificate that is used or consumed in any manner by the buyer, or is given away, must be reported and the tax paid directly to the Tennessee Department of Revenue.
28. Texas: Items purchased for resale must be for resale within the geographical limits of the United States, its territories, and possessions.

29. Vermont: The reseller must be registered to collect Vermont sales tax. Vermont allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption for goods only, not component parts to a service. It is not to be used by contractors. Vermont's manufacturing exemption is limited to property consumed in the manufacturing process, used directly and exclusively in the manufacturing process, or packaging or shipping materials for use by a manufacturer or wholesale distributor. Any other uses and the use for any other exemptions is not permitted.

While there is no statutory requirement that blanket certificates of resale be renewed at certain intervals, blanket certificates should be updated periodically, and no less frequently than every three years.

30. Washington: Buyer acknowledges that in addition to the amount of tax due, the misuse of this form may result in interest and penalties being imposed by law.
31. Wisconsin: Allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only. It does not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.

AGRICULTURAL TRANSACTIONS

Rule 710:65-13-15.

“Agricultural production” defined; taxable and exempt transactions.

(A) Definitions. For the purposes of this Section:

- (1) “Agricultural production” and “production of agricultural products” is limited to what would ordinarily be considered a farming or ranching operation undertaken for profit. The term refers to the raising of food crops or livestock for sale. Included within the meaning of “agricultural production” and “production of agricultural products” are ranches, orchards, and dairies. Also included is any feedlot operation, whether or not the land upon which a feedlot operation is located is used to grow crops to feed the livestock in the feedlot and regardless of whether or not the livestock fed are owned by persons conducting the feedlot.
- (2) “Farmers” means persons engaged in agricultural production or production of agricultural products.
- (3) “Farming” or “ranching” means the production, harvesting or processing of agricultural products.
- (4) “Livestock” means cattle, horses, sheep, goats, asses, mules, swine and also chickens, turkeys, and other domesticated fowl. It also includes American bison, emus, ostriches and llamas.

(B) Examples of persons engaged in farming, ranching or agricultural production. Besides the persons defined as farmers and ranchers above, the law recognizes persons engaged in the following types of activities, whose aim is the making of a profit, to also be engaged in farming, ranching or agricultural production:

- (1) Wholesale divisions of nurseries are considered to be farmers and the planting, growing, cultivation and harvesting of shrubs, flowers, trees and other plants for sale in the wholesale division of a nursery operation are defined to be farming operations.
- (2) Persons who plant, cultivate, and harvest sod for commercial sale are also considered to be farmers.

(C) Examples of persons who are not engaged in farming, ranching, or agricultural production. The following activities do not qualify as farming, ranching, or agricultural production:

- (1) Operation of commercial greenhouses;
- (2) Operation of plant nurseries, except their wholesale divisions;
- (3) Catfish raising;
- (4) Ownership of livestock solely for one's own use for pleasure riding, trail riding, performance riding, participation in horse shows, or racing; and,
- (5) The raising of cats, dogs, other fur-bearing animals not included in the definition of livestock, or non-domesticated fowl.

(D) Sales of feed, fertilizers, biologicals, and pharmaceuticals. The statute provides an exemption from sales tax for sales of certain items, such as feed, fertilizer, pharmaceuticals, biologicals, seeds, plants, and pesticides, when sold to a person regularly engaged in farming or ranching, for profit, and the items are to be used and in fact are used in agricultural production. Sales of agricultural fertilizer, pharmaceuticals and biologicals sold to a person engaged in the business of applying such materials on a contract or custom basis are specifically exempted from sales and use tax.

(E) Sales to persons other than farmers or ranchers. Sales of tangible personal property are subject to the sales or use tax under this rule, if the sales are to persons other than a farmer or rancher, regularly engaged in business for profit, or if the sales are made to a farmer or rancher, but the property is used or consumed for a purpose other than the production of agricultural products for sale.

(F) Sales for personal use. Sales to a farmer or rancher of fuel, clothing, and all other tangible personal property for personal living or human consumption or use are taxable. Sales of tangible personal property are taxable when the property is used in producing food or other products for personal consumption and not for sale. Similarly, sales of seed, fertilizer, equipment, etc. to anyone for use on homes, gardens, lawns, parks and golf courses or for use by landscape gardeners are taxable.

(G) Farm machinery. Sales of farm machinery used directly on a farm or ranch in the production of agricultural products are exempt. Such machinery is also exempt if sold to a custom harvester, baler, producer or planter performing service on a farm or a ranch.

(1) “Farm machinery” includes:

- (a) Expendable supplies, such as baling wire, and binders twine, hand tools, and implements such as fence stretchers, picks, posthole diggers, scoops and shovels;
- (b) Lubricants for farm machinery;
- (c) Repair or replacement parts for machinery used directly on a farm or ranch in production of agricultural products;

(2) “Farm machinery” does not include any motor vehicle licensed for highway use.

(H) Exemption limited to use in agricultural production. The fact that an item is purchased for use on a farm or ranch, or that a piece of equipment is convenient, does not necessarily make the purchase exempt from sales tax. The items purchased must be directly used on the purchaser's farm or ranch in the production of agricultural products. "To be directly used by the purchaser on a farm or ranch in the production of food or agricultural products" requires that the property in question must have a direct effect on the article being produced.
